

Season's greetings for 2018!

Highlights:

- Celebrated 15th Wedding Anniversary in Orlando with trip to Universal, Legoland, playing in the ocean, and spending time with friends.
- Visited and enjoyed our annual trip to the Washington DC area, although Nationals baseball game with great seats was rained out.

Dan:

- Sitting in same desk at IBM, now working as a contract worker.
- Still refereeing rowing events including the Big10s in Indianapolis.
- Busy with Nicholas, doing Dad duties, coaching (assistant) his soccer team, 2 over night trips with Nicholas' cub scout pack and other duties as needed.

Janet:

- Settling in at new work space located in converted loading dock providing a great view of the back of the stadium at OSU.
- Still enjoying cooking and cranking out Christmas treats.
- Duties with cub scouts expanded: now assistant Cub Scout leader and pack treasurer.

Nicholas:

- 5th Grade, playing cello, enjoyed fall fly-in, trip to Florida, and roller coasters.
- Sports: Soccer (fall) – still likes being goalie, basketball (winter), lacrosse (spring), baseball (summer) and archery after school.
- Neighborhood: playing basketball, football, soccer, nerf wars, riding bikes in cul-de-sac, sledding, and ghosts in the graveyard.

Best wishes to you and yours for a wonderful holiday season!

Dan, Janet and Nicholas
