

Dan & Janet Smith

2006

From the garden: Lupin

Holiday greetings! This year is turning out much better than last year. Janet is finally healthy after some more tough times during the year but is looking forward to a healthy holiday season. We hope you enjoy our year through pictures.

Pictures from Sedona, AZ – before the fires hit

We spent Memorial Day weekend in Sedona, Arizona for a friend's wedding and enjoyed hiking and playing with rocks. The cacti were amazing and even in bloom.

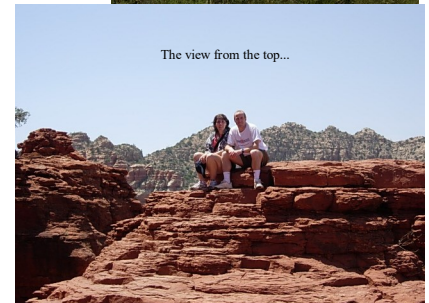

4 days in Japan: Santa, the beach and the big Buddha

Janet won two free tickets to Japan so we went for a few days in November and stayed in Yokohama with Janet's roommate from college. Yuko spoiled Dan rotten and he can't stop talking about her soup and tea. We toured the 100 yen shops (dollar stores) and Dan rubbed the inside of the Big Buddha's belly.

We spent the year working on the gardens and Dan built a fire pit for all the yard waste and moving dirt around the yard. We still have plenty of perennials so please stop by in the fall or spring to help us thin out what we have!

We hope that you can take a moment during the hectic days of the season to take a deep breath and enjoy those around you.

We won free tickets for 2 to Japan and made the ost of our 4 dyas....We covered so man things in our 4 days in Japan...
